Live in-person from the stunning Ripley Chapel at First Congregational Church, Jane Ring Frank, certified SoulCollage facilitator, will offer a workshop that incorporates the church's beautiful Reno Garden labyrinth with a deep spiritual SoulCollage practice on Saturday, May 11, from 9 a.m. – noon.

SoulCollage is a collage process for accessing your intuitive wisdom. Even though this is an "art project," it is accessible, and anyone can do it. You don't need to be an artist to create beautiful SoulCollage cards with rich meaning and messages for your life.

The workshop will couple "soul" work with a labyrinth walk – in the church's peaceful Reno Garden. The labyrinth inspires to quiet the mind, recover balance in life, enhance creativity and encourages meditation, insight, self-reflection and a closer union with the Creator.

It is an opportunity to breathe and to explore your inner landscape using SoulCollage as creative expression and the labyrinth to ground, integrate and deepen our experiences. SoulCollage and a Labyrinth walk offer grace-filled space to fuel our own forgotten flow of calm and creativity within a busy spring season.

All materials and direction are included to inspire your creative journey. Using scissors, glue, images, photos, and 8" X 5" mat board, you will be led on a path of self-discovery. No art experience necessary. If you have attended in the past, please feel free to participate!

You must register to attend. Registration is limited to 10 participants.

To register for the workshop, contact Jane Ring Frank at 857-919-0983 or at jringfrank@gmail.com. Although there is no charge for the workshop, a freewill offering will be taken. All materials, snacks, and drinks included.
